

Media release

26th of May 2021

Parole Board Queensland – No Body No Parole Hearing

On 25 August 2017, the Corrective Services (No Body No Parole) Amendment Act 2017 was enacted which provides the Parole Board Queensland (the Board) must not grant parole to a prisoner unless it is satisfied that the prisoner has satisfactorily cooperated in the investigation of their offence to identify the victim's location.

On Thursday, 27th of May 2021, the Board will hear the No Body No Parole aspect of the parole application made by Klaus ANDRES who is subject to this legislation.

This matter will be heard at the Parole Board Queensland, State Law Building, Level 24 at 9am.

The Board decision and reasons as to whether the prisoners satisfactorily cooperated in the investigation of their offence to identify the victim's location will be published at a date and time to be determined.

ENDS