

Media release

13 October 2022

Parole Board Queensland – No Body No Parole Hearing

On 25 August 2017, the Corrective Services (No Body No Parole) Amendment Act 2017 was enacted which provides the Parole Board Queensland (the Board) must not grant parole to a prisoner unless it is satisfied that the prisoner has satisfactorily cooperated in the investigation of their offence to identify the victim's location.

On Friday 14 October 2022 the Board will hear the No Body No Parole aspect of the parole application made by Lindy Yvonne Williams who is subject to this legislation.

This matter will be heard at the Brisbane Magistrates Court in Court Room 17 at 10am.

The Board decision and reasons as to whether the prisoner has satisfactorily cooperated in the investigation of their offence to identify the victim's location, or if a Declaration will be made under section 175L of the Corrective Services Act 2006, will be published at a date and time to be determined.

ENDS

Issued by Media and Communications,
Queensland Corrective Services.

Call us: +61 7 3898 0841

After hours: +61 447 174 377

Email us: QCSMedia@corrections.qld.gov.au